Weston Bakeries Limited does not advertise its products to children under 12 via the medium of word-of-mouth, cellphone or PDA advertising and does not advertise on nor sponsor DVDs of “G” rated movies that are primarily directed to children under 12. Neither does it advertise on or sponsor other DVDs whose content is primarily child-directed.

Implementation Schedule

This revised commitment is effective as of January 1st 2010. We will notify Advertising Standards immediately of any amendments and will submit a revised Commitment for their approval.

Supporting Data

To determine if advertising is directed primarily to children under 12, Weston Bakeries Limited is using the following definition:

Advertising directed to children refers to commercial messages for a product in any medium (i.e. television, radio, print or Internet) where one or more of the following conditions are present:

- (a) the users of the particular medium or audience of the program are solely, or substantially, children;
- (b) the message is presented in such a way that it appeals directly to children, or
- (c) in the case of television, the commercial message appears during, just before or just after a program that, according to the broadcaster, is targeted to the under-12 audience.

For the purposes of this initiative, “substantially” means 35% or greater.

Weston Bakeries Limited believes active kids are healthy kids. Through its WONDER brand and its WONDERCARES program, Weston Bakeries Limited is committed to promoting healthy lifestyles amongst families in communities across Canada. In June of 2011, the WONDER brand completed the 6th consecutive year of its WONDERCARES Fresh Fitness Challenge – providing fun fitness programming to elementary schools across Canada. This in-school program does not promote the purchase of any specific WONDER product as part of this program.

As part of its broad all-product sodium reduction strategy, WONDER bread and rolls have, in the past 12 months, reduced the sodium content in the great majority of its bakery products by 25%. Nutritional information for all Weston Bakeries Limited branded products is clearly marked on retail consumer packaging.

If Weston Bakeries Limited intends or decides to change any of the above, a revised Commitment will be submitted.
